

The background of the entire image is a serene sunset over a body of water. The sun is a bright, glowing orb positioned in the upper left quadrant, casting a long, shimmering reflection across the water's surface. The sky is filled with soft, golden-orange clouds, transitioning from a pale yellow near the horizon to a deeper orange at the top. In the distance, several dark, jagged rock formations or islands rise from the sea, their silhouettes clearly defined against the bright sky. The water in the foreground shows gentle ripples and a few dark rocks protruding from the surface. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.
