This record can help you keep track of your Bible reading. Shade the block for each chapter after reading it. Or if you prefer, put a diagonal slash through each block; then the next time you read it, put a slash the other direction.

Some prefer to read the Bible straight through. Some read from Old and New Testaments each day. Some read the books chronologically. Read the books in any order you choose—but do read. And read to learn to know God and to obey His will.

To read the entire Bible in a year, read three chapters a day and five on Sunday.

A good prayer to pray every time you read from the Bible is this one from Psalm 119:18: "Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law."
